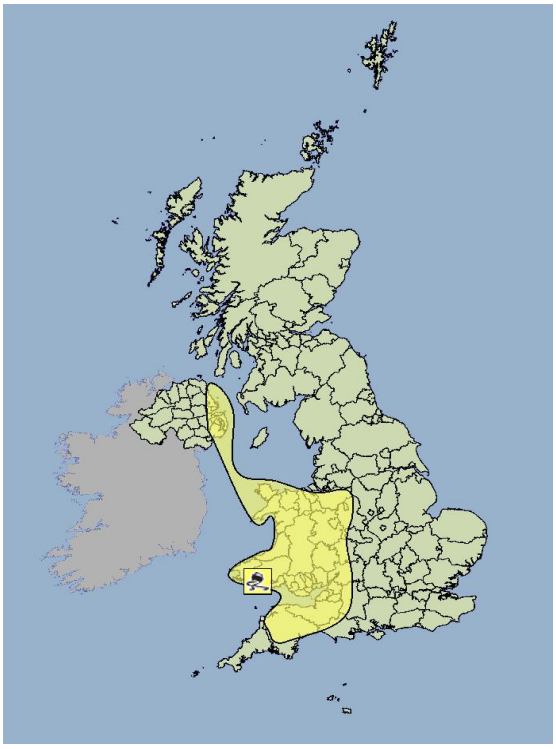
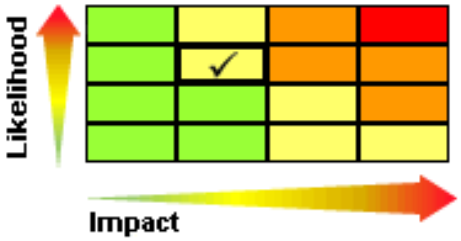
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Following the earlier rain, temperatures will fall below freezing allowing icy patches to form on untreated surfaces.

This is an update to the warning to extend the area further north and east, whilst removing Cornwall and the far south of Devon where temperatures are rising again.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Ice

Valid from 03:40 on Sun, 05th Feb 2017 until 10:30 on Sun, 05th Feb 2017

Ice is expected to form in some places at first on Sunday morning, which may lead to difficult driving conditions on untreated roads and slippery conditions on pavements.
